

Middle school arts teacher

8 hours of teaching per week

The teacher will have to follow the program of the French Ministry of National Education to build his teaching.

The visual arts are one of the two compulsory artistic courses which participate in the general education of the student.

Representation, Materiality and Works are the three main axes which structure his training course. At each cycle, these axes are declined with growing ambition and reinforced requirements.

This teaching is based on plastic practice in relation to the History of the Arts. It offers the means to bring informed and critical views on the Arts and on their worlds to which it refers, artistic and non-artistic.

Skills:

- Experiment, produce, create
- Implement a project
- Express yourself, analyze your practice and that of your peers
- Find your bearings in fields related to the plastic arts

The teacher can be English-speaking and teach in English, but he must respect the guidelines specified above.

Required diploma: Master

Proven teaching experience is expected.
