

English teacher in secondary school (middle and high school)

In view of the opening of a British international section in secondary school by 2023, the French school in Kuala Lumpur is recruiting for the September 2022 school year an English teacher with a university education in history/civilization.

Required skills:

- Native speaker of the language of the section (native speaker of British English language),
- Have a good experience of teaching their subject in the British system
- Have developed pedagogical expertise; be able to assess student learning, explain learning objectives learning objectives, organize a coherent progression of work, propose a variety of activities work, and propose a variety of activities
- Know how to establish a climate of mutual trust, solicit students' input with consistency and benevolence the students' interventions,
- To master the use of ICT (communication technologies for teaching),
- Know how to work as a team,
- For relations with the families of the students; adaptability, availability, relational skills interpersonal skills.

Qualifications :

- To have the necessary qualifications to teach in the British school system or, failing that, to hold a school system or, failing that, hold a master's degree combined with at least five (5) years of five (5) years of teaching experience in the United Kingdom, in a school accredited by the United Kingdom (British Schools Overseas (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/british-schools-overseasinspection-reports/british-schools-overseas-accredited-schools-inspection-reports>), or in a British Schools Overseas in a British International Section of a school in the AEFÉ network.

Professional experience:

- At least five (5) years of teaching experience in the United Kingdom in a school accredited by the United Kingdom (British Schools Overseas (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/british-schools-overseas-inspectionreports/british-schools-overseas-accredited-schools-inspection-reports>), or in a British International Section of an AEFÉ network school.

Additional comments on the position profile

Teachers in the International Section will be expected to :

- Actively participate in the development of the International Section of the French school within the the school and its environment,
- Implement and maintain partnerships with institutions that are emblematic of the British presence in Malaysia, with British International Sections in other French schools abroad and in schools in France,
- To collaborate with teachers of non-specific subjects in the section,
- To be tactful and diplomatic in a multicultural context,
- Be involved in a dynamic project